

Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa (TMBC) Maternal, Infant, Early Childhood Home Visiting

2025

Supporting families from pregnancy through early childhood with trusted, community-based care.

TMBC home visiting connects families with trained professionals who provide guidance, resources, and support during pregnancy and early childhood. Through trusted, relationship-based care, home visitors strengthen parenting, promote healthy development, and connect families to the services they need to thrive.

Who Is Served

Families with young children, including those who may benefit from additional support or access to services.

What Home Visitors Do

- Provide parenting support and guidance
- Connect families to health and community services
- Support child development and school readiness

Program Impact

Home visiting in TMBC is making a meaningful difference for families and communities. By meeting families where they are, these programs help improve maternal and child health, support early learning, and build a stronger foundation for long-term success.

"I love the visits, activities and family nights. My baby is meeting his milestones as expected and I couldn't ask for more. I would not know about his milestones if I wasn't on the program." — Program Participant.

OVERVIEW

Turtle Mountain Tribal Home Visiting:

- Supports healthy pregnancies and child development
- Strengthens parenting skills and confidence
- Connects families to critical health and community resources
- Helps identify needs early and reduce risk over time

PROGRAM STATS

88

Families reached

1

Counties served

4

Home visitors

Home visitors meet families where they are, building trust that supports long-term well-being.

A Closer Look

The program provides personalized support during pregnancy and early childhood, helping families access resources, strengthen parenting, and support healthy child development.

Services and models like Nurse Family Partnership (NFP) and Parents as Teachers (PAT) are designed to meet families where they are, offering flexible, relationship-based support that builds trust and promotes long-term well-being.

What We Offer

- One-on-one support tailored to each family
- Guidance on parenting, child development, and health
- Connections to local services and community resources
- Flexible visits in the home or virtually

Program Details

Program detail	Information
Counties Served	Rolette
Who delivers services	Parent Educators
Visit format	In-home and/or virtual
Cost	Free / No cost to families
Evidence Based Programs	Parents as Teachers

Get connected

Learn more or refer a family:

www.facebook.com/T.M.homevisitationproject

(701) 477-0240

amy.gourneau@tmbci.org

Home Visiting in Turtle Mountain

Feedback from program participants:

“The home visiting program is by far the best program for families.”

“The home visiting program is so important to our families and our children’s education. Thank you for always providing family night opportunities”

“This is an awesome program the ladies are awesome!”

